14 고난도

W: Hi. What brings you here today?

M: I want to know how I can _____ _____ volunteering.

W: Have you ever done any volunteering before?

M: No. Actually, this is my first time. So I'm not sure what I want to do exactly.

W: In my opinion, you should get an idea about what you're interested in.

M: Well, I enjoy using computers and I'm a _____.

W: Let me see what I have for you. How about teaching a computer class _____ _____ or spending some time at a nursing home? We're in need of volunteers at nursing homes.

M: I prefer the _____. I enjoy teaching very much.

W: That's great. May I ask how much you know about the subject you'll be teaching?

M: (I hold several computer certificates.)

M: Sunwoo went downtown to buy some books for his exam. On the way back home, he took a crowded subway. Fortunately, he found _____ _____ and sat down. He opened one of the books he just bought because he didn't want to waste his time.

While he was reading it, he suddenly felt really sleepy. When he next opened his eyes, he realized that he _____ _____ for a few minutes. An old woman was standing right in front of his seat and staring at him in the face. Sunwoo felt like the woman was asking him to _____ her his seat. In this situation, what would Sunwoo most likely say to the old woman?

Sunwoo: (I must have been dozing off. Have this seat.)

W: How do you envision yourself in 10 or 20 years? Some students find it hard to _____ _____ for their future. Our career counseling service can be the solution for these students. Through career counseling, we hope to find appropriate jobs that will ensure students a promising future. There are many things that we consider in this process. First, we analyze _____ _____ of each student through interviews and surveys. Finding out their capabilities will help us find them jobs _____

Second, we talk with each student about their interests and passions. We try to find a job that is related to such interests so that the students will be motivated to work. Third, we analyze the future prospects for jobs. _____

_____ the specific job we recommend has many openings and potential for growth in the future. Finally, we research ways to prepare students to get the jobs they are right for. We provide training courses, exam preparation, and mock interviews so that students are ready to get the jobs they want.
